Cleveland, Ohio, July 23.-The Naps beat the Nationals 3 to 1 to-day and thereby made it three straight, the first game having gone twelve innings to a tie.

The contest was a pitcher's battle between Smith and Clarkson, in which the Boston twice each, and Philadelphia and tion. latter allowed only two hits, one coming in the ninth inning, while the former was touched up for only five, two of which were fluky affairs. Three of the five. though, came in the seventh inning and down until the seventh.

Clarkson, though, excelled the performance of his opponent. He pitched a hitless game up to the seventh inning, and only one National got as far as third base, that being Altizer in the final inning. Clarkson had a slow delivery that puzzled the visitors, and he was given eighteen-karat support throughout. Flick of the week Morgan is anytious to an inning a Montreal uniform before the first pixture.

Manager Jim Morgan, of the Montreal salp, and Charley Smith, so that before the first half, of the trip had been completed the whole club was hopelessly crippled and, all things considered, was rather lucky to be able to win the eight games which have been placed to the credit of Washington since June 22.

However, it is believed that the worst has passed and the team which takes eighteen-karat support throughout. Flick probably saved the day for the Naps by a spectacular catch in the ninth inning, when the Harvard boy seemed to weaken slightly. The right outfielder garnered a late of the week. yesterday's game, managed to shove over runs enough to win from St. Stephen's Institute by 5 to 2. By yesterday's defeat, St. Stephen's was auled out of first place and Aloysius again went to the fore with a lead of 29 points over St. Stephen's. The game was watched by a large crowd, and the plays were well received. Reichard was on the line, and, barring his usual first inning, was in fine form, dist He had seven strike-outs, one of these the second inning was the feature. St. Stephen's was unable to score until the sixth session. A chance to win the game was lost by St. Stephen's in the seventh, when, with two men on bases and nobody out, Bradley, instead of bunting, hit to center field. He was the first man to face Dent, and after that the next
